

U.S. STATE REPORTS DIXON PUBLIC LIBRARY PATHFINDER

Books and Pamphlets:

Come into the Dixon Public Library for books and reference materials about specific states. You can put items on hold electronically from your home computer by going to the Library Catalog.

Do not hesitate to ask the friendly and helpful reference and children's librarians for help.

For the Reference Desk: Call 707-693-2746

For the Children's librarian: Call 707-693-2747

Internet Links:

Find facts about the history, geographic location, and other cool stuff about your State.

The Library of Congress

www.americaslibrary.gov

Click on "Explore the States", where you will find fascinating facts and stories about all the states and Washington, D.C. This site is sponsored by the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C., the largest library in the world!

Global Computing

www.globalcomputing.com

Click on "U.S. States", and then the state you want to know about! This site has links to all of the 50 states' official websites. Most of the individual state pages have information about the state's government plus education, weather, tourism, and more!

Enchanted Learning

www.enchantedlearning.com/usa/states

Facts, map and state symbols for the 50 states, with links to related quizzes and printouts!

Other Good Sites Include:

www.50states.com

www.bensguide.gpo.gov/3-5/state

www.netstate.com/states/index.html

www.infoplease.com/states.html

www.netstate.com/states/index.html

Use these sites to organize your readings:

www.classbrain.com/cb_sr/cb_sr_studyaids/cd_bibliowrksht.pdf

www.classbrain.com/cb_sr/cb_sr_studyaids/cd_biblioformat.htm

DIXON PUBLIC LIBRARY

230 North First Street

Dixon, CA 95620